COLLEGE EMPOWERED BY NEW REPORTING SYSTEM

Reading Area Community College (RACC) is a two year college in an urban setting which provides accredited education in associate's degrees and certificate and diploma programs to over 8,000 students. Dory Peterson, the Associate Vice President for Business Services found herself in need of a new financial reporting system for RACC after Microsoft announced the end-of-life for FRx.

In March of 2012, RACC found Synoptix to be a robust and efficient reporting system, combined with fast implementation, personal training and an ease of use that clearly makes it a superior product. Rather than creating row and column formats for each reporting tree, the Synoptix Report Filter Tree sets itself apart from FRx with exceptional functionality and an intuitive interface that takes the expression “user friendly” up a notch. Dory indicated that with Synoptix “it was noticeably easier to quickly get up and running and start building reports right away.”

With Synoptix, RACC does not have to rely on their IT staff to install, update and manage their reporting software system. After the initial Synoptix training (that is included with every purchase), Dory was able to set up her own reports and manage it herself. “So this is a big thing. It was easy to set up and I was able to do it all on my own. I was actually able to do the administrative piece myself!”

Management now has control of the necessary tools to quickly and easily develop much needed reports for optimal decision making. Synoptix has proven to be the perfect reporting replacement at RACC.

Customized reporting with near instant implementation, Synoptix allows you to quickly create visual reports and easily discover and utilize the data opportunities within your organization.
